

The World

Talk about bridges. Where are there bridges near you? Do you know any famous bridges? What do they look like?

Try building a bridge for the goats to get across the river from junk. Is there anything else you could build to help them travel across?

Try planting grass or cress seeds in different places e.g. dark, light, cool or hot places. Which ones do you think the goats would like the most? Why?

Maths

Look at the sizes used in the story - small, middle-sized and large. Sort other sets of toys and objects into size sequence. Try the size ordering worksheet in this folder.

Can you build a bridge from lego? How many pieces did you use? Can you estimate first?

Try the counting and addition sheets in this folder based around the story.

Physical Development

Can you do any of the cutting activities in this folder?

Can you move like each of the Billy Goats or the Troll?

Try making the Troll or the Goats out of playdough (there is an easy recipe in this folder if you don't already have some).

Literacy

Read the version of The Three Billy Goats Gruff in this folder. Do you know other versions? How are they different?

Can you order the picture cards and retell the story?

Try the word and picture matching activity in this folder.

Can you try writing this story in your own words?

Three Billy Goats Gruff

Personal, social and emotional

Why do you think the troll didn't want them to cross the bridge? How would you feel if someone did something you didn't want them to do?

Take turns and share while playing the board game in this folder.

Creative

Explore how to mix the colour green to create different shades of green for the grass.

Use instruments if you have them (or pots, pans and kitchen utensils if you don't) to make the noises of the different goats crossing the bridge.

Try making a handprint Goat.

Communication and Language

Use the role play masks in this folder and try retelling this story.

Can you pretend to be one of the characters in the story? Let a relative ask you questions and see if they can guess who you are!
